

Howard Grossman

Known for his accessibility, compassion and tenacious trial preparation, Howard Grossman is one of the leading personal injury attorneys in South Florida. For 25 years, Howard has litigated complex personal injury, medical malpractice, maritime injury and workers' compensation cases. He takes pride not only in advocating for victims of personal injury, but in providing them with the resources and information they need to return to everyday life. His dedication to clients extends beyond a settlement as he keeps in touch with clients for years after their case has closed.

In addition to the Florida Bar, Howard is admitted to the U.S. District Courts for the Middle and Southern Districts of Florida, U.S. Court of Appeals, 11th Circuit, and the U.S. District Court of Colorado. Howard is a Workers' Compensation Emeritus Specialist, AV-rated by Martindale Hubbell, and voted as a Super Lawyer for the State of Florida.

Born in Brooklyn New York, Howard has lived most of his adult life in South Florida. Howard is a past-president of the South Palm Beach County Bar Association and an active member of the American Justice Association (President's Club), National College of Advocacy, Palm Beach County Bar Association, and Florida Justice Association (Eagle Member).
